YOUR FUTURE IN A CUP

Channeling with Coffee Grounds: A Beginner's Guide to Divination

By Magzcha Westerman,
M.A.

THE REINCARNATION OF EDGAR CAYCE?

Interdimensional Communication & Global Transformation

By Wynn Free
with David Wilcock

ISBN 1-4120-5055-3. Paperback. 8-1/2" x 11." 98 pp. 2005. Trafford Publications. $16.95.

Miraculous! The ability to foresee your own future! Today, tomorrow, next week, next month! Just a little cup of coffee, and the instructions in this book will show you how. Your Future in a Cup is a "how-to" foresee your future using the ancient Greek/Turkish custom of divining with coffee grounds. The author leads us on a step-by-step journey through the ten chapters of Section One, from preparing the coffee to interpreting the images. Interspersed throughout the text are fascinating examples of readings from the author's files. Many startling, sometimes beautiful, untouched photographs of images formed in cup and saucer grounds, illustrate the principles being taught. The second half of the book consists of an extensive list of symbols and their meanings. These interpretations are culled from many cultures, historic and contemporary, and from mythology, folklore, literature, religion and the author's personal experience.

"This is a reliable and scholarly treatment of an ancient art. Fluent, readable, user-friendly and very clearly illustrated: an ideal gift for anyone wishing to further their psychic development. Plato said that the unexamined life is not worth living. After reading this excellent guide, we could add that the unexamined cup should not be washed until it has been examined." - Lionel Fanthorpe, president, The British Association for the Scientific Study of Anomalous Phenomena.

"The cultures of the Mediterranean have a rich and deep tradition in the divinatory arts. In Your Future in a Cup, Magzcha Westerman introduces readers to one of the most colorful of these in the practice of reading coffee grounds. Combining flawless instruction with an informed understanding of Western symbology, Your Future in a Cup concisely, yet completely, conveys an occult art to the everyday reader..." - Mitch Horowitz, executive editor, Tarcher/Penguin.

About the Author: Magzcha Westerman, M.A. is a metaphysician specializing in Pythagorean number symbolism (numerology); character analysis from the hand (palmistry); and the ancient art of channeling with coffee grounds (cup-reading). She has been counseling and teaching for 35 years and is a widely published author.

Edgar Cayce (1877-1945), the "sleeping prophet," is widely considered to be the most documented and accurate psychic in the Western world. Speaking from a trance, Cayce gave the afterlife realms a voice. Popular contemporary intuitive/researcher David Wilcock has believed since 1998 that he is Cayce's reincarnation, but refused to allow publication of a book about it—until now. Author Wynn Free unveils the stunning case that led him from initial skepticism to conviction of the claim's authenticity.

The Reincarnation of Edgar Cayce? details the intriguing connection between Cayce and Wilcock, and presents the case for both having the same source for their prophetic information. Through the inspirational, life-transforming words from Wilcock's Higher Self—part of a group soul known as "Ra"—readers can learn how the now-obvious "Earth Changes" are energetic increases also occurring in scientifically measurable ways on the sun and on all other planets. Breathtaking new evidence indicates how this energy can transform DNA, potentially making ESP, telekinesis, levitation, and other paranormal activities as common as breathing—and ushering in the "Golden Age" promised by every major spiritual tradition in human history. The Reincarnation of Edgar Cayce? is selling consistently in the U. S. without a major promotional campaign. It generates word-of-mouth and often readers purchase additional copies to give to their friends. It is now in its fourth printing. The Edgar Cayce name recognition causes people to impulsively pick the book up when it is placed in a visible location. This name recognition will extend to many foreign markets as well.

"David Wilcock is Edgar Cayce." – Uri Geller.

"Whether Wilcock is Cayce or not is unimportant compared to the wealth of valuable scientific and spiritual information contained in this enjoyable volume." – New Age Retailer

The Sirian Revelations III

No More Secrets, No More Lies: A Handbook to Starseed Awakening

By Patricia Cori

ISBN 8890104007. Paperback. 230 pp. Lightworks Press. March 2003. $17.95.

This, the third book of The Sirian Revelations trilogy, is dedicated to revealing the misinformation that has been utilized to disempower the human race—while illuminating the fundamentals that are necessary tools for those who intend to ascend with Planet Earth. Its purpose is to reveal the most pressing concerns surrounding the great conspiracy that, for millennia, has deterred humankind from achieving absolute liberation and its birthright as the super race of our realm. It is intended as a guide to our liberation from the designs of the dark warriors, and designed to serve as a manual for clearing our minds, once and for all, of the debris that has settled as “conviction” in our personal and collective belief systems. For this endeavor, the culmination of the trilogy, the Sirian High Council is aided and joined by light beings from the eighth dimension: the Overlighted Ones. Their contribution raises the vibrational essence of the material to an even higher frequency; for many, it is a vehicle of attunement and a way out of the maze of fear and powerlessness that has held them from fulfilling their mission.

“I love these books! Great work! A job well done!” - Dr. Joshua Stone, The Melchizedek Light Academy.

“[She] has channeled the absolute truth of Creation....who we are —where we came from...what our mission is.” - Richard Fuller, Metaphysical Reviews.

“If Ken Carey's book The Starseed Transmissions feels like an old and trusted friend, then you will welcome Patricia Cori's Sirian Transmissions with a joyful oh-yes! recognition....It takes great courage to write a book like this and I thank Patricia Cori for doing so. I believe that No More Secrets, No More Lies is the next book for the Starseeds—and you know who you are.” - V. Susan Ferguson, author of Inanna Returns.

“Fantastic! This is, without question, the most interesting and best-written book of any I have read in its genre.” - Tom Bosco, Director, Nexus, Italy.

About the Author. A native of the San Francisco Bay Area, Patricia Cori is the founder and director of the LightWorks Association in Rome, Italy, whose studios serve as a healing center, a school and the city's only New Age Library. A prominent figure on the international lecture circuit and leader of tours to sacred sites around the world, she has been actively channeling the Speakers of the Sirian High Council (Light Beings from the sixth dimension) since her first visit to the crop circles of England in 1996.

Tales of Heroes and Angels

By Robert Tabor

Lincoln in the Basement

By Jerry Cowling

ISBN 0976002701. Hardcover. 174 pp. 2005. Siena Books. $21.95.

"He lay sick and exhausted on the cabin floor as the hurricane-driven waves poured through the hatch door...The aviator fell into a deep sleep while flying solo across the Atlantic Ocean...The pod of whales tore out the 3,000-lb. keel of the ship. She sank in 60 seconds..."

These are a few of the stories in this remarkable retelling of some of the world's great adventures. Adventures where men and women have survived in spite of facing certain tragedy or even death.

From the title, Tales of Heroes and Angels, one might expect these stories of survival and great accomplishment to be filled with many references to the Almighty, God, and supernatural beings, but there are none. Most of these stories are related as fact and are historically proven. It is left to the reader to explain the incidents that the authors cannot.

Only one, a man named Lalibella, vowed that angels gave him the secret for building six-story solid rock churches which could not be seen from a block away and consequently could not be destroyed by the invading Muslims a thousand years later. Here, too, you will find other legends of truck drivers, Indian fighters and Great White Horses, but the stories the men themselves have written in their biographies are the ones that you will remember and think about more often. Such as Bill Bass, the oldest man to have climbed Mt. Everest at the time, alone, exhausted, with no oxygen and up to his waist in snow. He was going to die. But he didn't.

The author hopes that you too will realize you are never alone, which will help you to cope with your daily life more successfully and perhaps accomplish the seemingly impossible.

"I truly enjoyed all the stories – they are all fascinating!" - Hart Stephenson, 7th.-grade English teacher.

"Original! Always something new, something I didn't know." - Wilma Cowles, 90-year-old matron.

About the Author: Now retired from a career in advertising and theatre management, Robert Tabor lives in Florida. His first book, Downstream, was a canoeing and rafting guide to Florida's many rivers and freshwater springs.

ISBN 1589822684. Softcover. 308 pp. 2005. American Book Publishing. $22.00.

The year is 1862. President Lincoln and his wife are kidnapped by Secretary of State Edwin Stanton, imprisoned in the White House basement, and replaced by doppelgangers.

What would have been the repercussions of such a bizarre—and yet, as described by novelist Jerry Cowling, plausible—alternative development in American history?

The answer: Political intrigue, fueled by arrogance and lust for power, propel a Civil War nightmare. Historical reality is twisted into an emotional and dramatic allegory drawn from today's international headlines.

No one will finish this novel without forever wondering who actually makes the decisions coming from the White House: the person we call the president, or some shadowy figure lurking in the background?

"Sure to provoke controversy, Cowling's intriguing Civil War tale of a Lincoln doppelganger is set in a skillfully described wartime White House, populated with engagingly drawn characters drawn by Edwin Stanton into a scenario of 'what-might-have-been.'" - David Cleutz, author, War & Redemption-A Civil War.

"Lincoln in the Basement is intelligently written and psychologically insightful with good character development. A great combination of the historical and fanciful. Both emotional and thought-provoking." - Jaclyn Lurker, author, Cryer's Valley.

About the Author: Born in the North Central Texas town of Gainesville, Jerry Cowling grew up with a taste for history as romance, from fantasizing about finding the lost cache of stolen gold hidden by Old West outlaw Sam Bass, to empathizing with a Roman child experiencing the eruption of Mount Vesuvius at Pompeii. A graduate of East Texas State University with degrees in Journalism and English, he spent ten years working for newspapers from Kingsport, Tennessee, to Dallas, Killeen and Temple, Texas. Lincoln in the Basement is his first published novel. He has had a play published by Eldridge Publishing Company, Tallahassee, Florida, and has written several other plays which have received productions and staged readings in Oregon, California, Texas and Florida.

Open the Coffin

A True Story of the Supernatural

By Paul Casey

The Psychic

ISBN 0-595-67255-8. Hardcover. 260 pp. 2005. iUniverse. $16.95.

"First in a dream, then into my office, came a centuries-old ghost, tapping on my desk with a fan."

The apparition that entered Paul Casey's office had once been the mother of emperors, kings and queens. She was Juana I of Spain, Archduchess of Austria, Queen of Castile, Queen of Aragon, Sicily, Sardinia, Naples, Mexico, Peru, and, for 51 years, ruler of "all the lands to the west of Africa." She is scarcely known to history; yet, two-and-a-half centuries before the U.S. was born, she tried to establish a democratic government that would have spanned the Americas from pole to pole. Juana's reward was to be betrayed, first by her husband, then by her father, then by her son. She was declared insane and committed, under iron-clad secrecy, to the horrors of a stone room without light, where she remained until her death, nearly a decade later, in 1555.

How did someone of such stature become merely a footnote in the history books? The answer is all too sinister. A young widow, never trained to rule, Juana I was a woman who was too passionate, too outspoken—too much trouble. The victim of an international conspiracy that has remained a dark secret for 500 years, she was made to disappear.

Her re-appearance in a 20th-century office building was independently perceived by others at the time. For a week the office of Paul Casey was alive with mental flashes, reenactments of treachery, high treason and mind-games. Then, partly with the help of a psychic, Juana I began to unfold her passionate, dramatic story.

Then Paul Casey fell in love with her....

"Paul Casey's supreme storytelling keeps the reader riveted from the first page to the last..." - Corinne W. Mcvee, AMAZON.COM.

About the Author: One of today's top theoretical physicists, Paul Casey has proposed an alternative energy process that harnesses the rotation of the earth. Developer of the famous California Spangled cats (announced by Neiman Marcus), he has written for prime-time TV, film and the stage; his Lassie episodes won the National Humane Society Award. He is also a well-known photographer and pianist. All this is Paul Casey's public side; in private his friends and acquaintances know him as a psychic—someone who from a very early age prophesied events to come and recollected events that took place before he was born.

START YOUR OWN RELIGION

By Timothy Leary

ISBN 1-57951-073-6. Paperback. 240 pp. Illustrated. March 2005. Ronin Publishing. $14.00.

Religious, mystical, visionary possession states are powerful and wonderful—they open the doors of perception, polish our sensory lenses, and shake up the autonomous sensory system. They're intimate and precious and they shouldn't be imposed on others. When the power of the shamanic tripping is hooked to a confrontational monotheistic religious dogma, you're got the potential for major mind games.

Leary asks: "Who owns the Jesus Property?" What we have is a typical bunch of quarrelling Christian sects—exactly the same noisy cast of characters who have been profiting from similar theological battles for two millennia. They've bickered, century after century. They are hassling over the ownership of one of the most valuable properties of all time. Look at the script: The birth in a manger. The walking on water. The loaves and fishes. The scourging of the money lenders from the Temple. The betrayal by Judas. The crown of thorns. The ever-popular Crucifixion Climax. The surprised ending Resurrection. It beats Indiana Jones, doesn't it?

Religion is the turn-on, tune-in, drop-out process.

In the 1950s, we began to see a new religious movement—Born Again Paganism—which is still going strong today. In Start Your Own Religion, Leary describes a do-it-yourself religion. Since God # 1 appears to be held hostage by the bloodthirsty Osama Bin Laden, by the memory of the telegenic Pope John Paul II, and by the Religious Right...there's only one logical alternative: Steer your own course! You and your dear friends must start your own religion.

The basic political unit is exactly the same as the basic spiritual grouping: The Clan.

You and your friends can do anything that the great religions and empires and racial groups have done in the name of their God. You can choose your Gods to be smart, compassionate, cute and goofy. Begin by creating a cult comprised of your family and friends. Then develop a personal mythology and write your own New Testament.

You are a God. Pray like one!

About the Author: Timothy Leary was a world-renowned psychologist, a West Point student, a defrocked Harvard professor, a relentless champion of brain-change, a stand-up philosopher, a Federal "criminal" and a counterculture guru. His charisma and radically humorous nature often captured the attention of the world. Some called him "the most dangerous man on the planet." Leary continues to be an inspiration for millions of freedom-loving and free-thinking people throughout the world.

Basic Skills for the New Arbitrator 2nd Ed.

By Allan H. Goodman

ISBN 0967097320. Paperback. 116 pp.
May 2004. Solomon Publications.
$25.00.

Alternate dispute resolution techniques have developed to resolve disputes without resorting to the traditional method of litigation in court. The two main alternative dispute resolution techniques are mediation and arbitration. In mediation, a person is chosen to facilitate the settlement of the dispute. While this person does not have authority to bind the parties, he or she must have specific skills to guide the parties to a settlement. In arbitration, a person with specific expertise in the subject matter of the dispute is chosen to act as a private judge and render a binding decision.

There is an increasing demand for trained mediators and arbitrators who come from a wide variety of professions—lawyers, family counselors, psychologists, human resource managers, academicians, construction contractors, real estate professionals, and others.

Basic Skills for the New Mediator and Basic Skills for the New Arbitrator, by Allan H. Goodman, are widely used for self-instruction and as training texts by private trainers and instructors. Colleges and universities also use these books as textbooks on the undergraduate and graduate level in courses dealing with mediation, arbitration, conflict management, alternative dispute resolution, employee management, human resources, and related topics.

These books are a must for new practitioners! Experienced mediators and arbitrators will also find many useful suggestions for improving their skills. Written in question-and-answer format, they answer the one hundred questions most frequently asked by new mediators and arbitrators with clear, concise, and practical "hands-on" suggestions. Guidance is provided for the non-attorney mediator and arbitrator. Attorneys who represent clients in arbitration and mediation will also benefit from the insight into these processes which these books offer.

Both books are authored by Allan H. Goodman, an experienced arbitrator and mediator, adjunct professor at the Georgetown University Law Center and a judge on the U.S. General Services Administration Board of Contract Appeals. He lectures frequently on alternative dispute resolution and has conducted training sessions for the American Arbitration Association.

Basic Skills for the New Mediator 2nd Ed.

By Allan H. Goodman

ISBN 0967097339. Paperback. 110 pp.
September 2004. Solomon Publications.
$25.00.

Basic Skills for the New Mediator provides an overview of the entire process, from the premediation conference through all stages of the mediation session. The new mediator will learn to establish his or her authority as a mediator, schedule the mediation session, deliver the mediator's opening statement, prioritize issues, preside during joint sessions and private caucuses, overcome impasses in settlement discussions, identify "hidden agenda" and "throw-away" items, deal with parties who lack settlement authority, and achieve a viable settlement. The Appendix "Everything You Never wanted to know About the Rules of Evidence" is especially valuable for the non-attorney mediator, who must often deal with the evidentiary vocabulary of the legal profession.

Basic Skills for the New Arbitrator begins with a discussion of how and why parties decide to arbitrate, the appointment of the arbitrator, and the arbitrator's duty of disclosure. The new arbitrator will learn to conduct a preliminary conference, issue prehearing orders, establish a discovery schedule, resolve discovery disputes, deal with attempted delays, preside at an arbitration hearing, render the award, and avoid prejudicial conduct during the hearing and after the award.

Visit Solomon Publications's website at <www.solomonpublications.com> for detailed information, including an author biography, the introductions from each book, and the one hundred questions answered in each.

"Easy to carry, read, and follow. They are exactly what a new mediator/arbitrator needs to learn the ropes and what an experienced mediator/arbitrator needs as a refresher." - The Construction Lawyer, Summer 2002.

LOST STAR OF MYTH AND TIME

By Walter Cruttenden

ISBN 0-9767631-1-7. Paperback. 368 pp. 71 Illustrations. October 2005. St. Lynn's Press. $19.95.

Ancient folklore from around the world rings with two resonating themes: History moves in cycles with alternating Golden and Dark Ages, and the slow movement of the stars across the sky, the precession of the equinox, is the cause and timekeeper of these cycles.

For years we have heard that these are only myths; there was no Golden Age and precession is just a wobbling of the Earth's axis. Now Lost Star of Myth and Time shows evidence the ancients were not just weaving fanciful tales. Science is on the verge of an amazing discovery: Our Sun has a companion star carrying us through a great cycle of stellar influences. If true, this means the ancients were right and our modern views of space and time and the history of civilization will never be the same. More than that, it would mean we are now at the dawn of a new age in human development and world conditions.

"Lost Star of Myth and Time is a wonderful, stimulating, thought-provoking new—or very old—approach to the greatest enigmas of human history. If Walter Cruttenden is right, as I very much suspect he is, then he has found the key to the mystery of the ages!" - Graham Hancock, author, Fingerprints of the Gods.

"A compelling explanation for a major, but studiously neglected mystery: Why Ancient Egypt was at its height very near its beginning, then slowly degenerated. This quietly incendiary book confronts the Paradigm Police across a spectrum of disciplines: ancient history, modern astronomy and the accepted account of human civilization. Powerful stuff!" - John Anthony West, author, Serpent in the Sky.

"There is a modern revolution underway in how we understand the cosmos—and it is based on ancient starlore and mythology. In this pioneering book, a completely new thesis has been parsed out from ancient texts and modern astrophysical data: Our sun may be part of a binary star system." - John Major Jenkins, author, Maya Cosmogenesis 2012 and Galactic Alignment.

About the Author: Walter Cruttenden is an amateur theoretical archaeo-astronomer and author of the binary theory of precession. As executive director of the Binary Research Institute, he researches the celestial mechanics of the precession of the equinox, as well as myth and folklore related to this phenomenon. He is the writer-producer of The Great Year, a PBS broadcast documentary film (narrated by James Earl Jones) that explores evidence of astronomical cycles of time known to cultures throughout the ancient world.

THE PARTHENON CODE

Mankind's History in Marble

By Robert Bowie Johnson, Jr.

ISBN 0970543832. 7 x 10 Paperback. 251 Black & White Illustrations. 288 pp. June 2004. Solving Light Books. $29.95.

The Parthenon Code reveals, for the first time in 2,000 years, the meaning of the seven sculptural themes on Athena's temple. A simple but hidden artists' code, expressed on vase-paintings and the Parthenon sculptures, leads to the astonishing truth that Greek myth/art chronicles in great detail the reestablishment of the way of Cain (Cain) after the Flood. The events of Eden were part of the Greeks' collective cultural memory, and their special interpretation of those events made up the very basis of their religious system. Greek myth/art is human history. The Book of Genesis is human history. While the viewpoints of each are opposite, the recounted events match each other in convincing detail.

The Greeks knew exactly who Noah was. They called him Nereus, the "Wet One." While it is true that the Greeks built the Parthenon to glorify the serpent-worshipping Eve of Genesis, it is also true that they built it to celebrate their "victory" over Noah and his God.

"Sitting in the shade of the Acropolis in Athens and looking up at the Parthenon while reading it, the book made complete sense of the way ancient Greek artists communicated in a layperson's language...[The Parthenon Code] is in a rare class of literature that can be classified as the beaconing light to understand humanity." - New Europe/The European Weekly.

"One of the most original, engaging, thoughtful, and thought-provoking works....an iconoclastic, mind-stimulating, and strongly recommended read." - The Midwest Book Review.

"The most original book of the decade, if not the last fifty years." - Ron Pramschufel, BooksJustBooks.com.

"This is the book the thinking Christian community has been waiting for." - Ian T. Taylor, Creation Moments.

Messages from the Hollow Earth

By Dianne Robbins

ISBN 1-4120-0529-9. Softcover. 198 pp. 2003. Dianne Robbins, 341 Village Lane, Rochester, NY 14610, U.S. $18.00.

Not only is the Earth hollow, but it is inhabited by advanced civilizations. Read about the existence of these evolved civilizations that live in peace and brotherhood in the center of our Earth, which is hollow, and contains an inner central sun, with oceans and mountains still in their pristine state. Discover the lost library of Alexandria.

You Have Waited Thousands of Years to Hear Our Messages! Greetings from the Hollow Earth!

I am Mikos and I dwell inside your Earth. I am reaching up to you in consciousness, to impart our frequency to you as you read the words on these pages of our book. These pages are sacred, for their contents contain the mighty power to change the world—if but enough surface folk read them. This is our purpose for dictating our messages to you. It is to hasten change on the surface so that people will once again be connected to their divine self and source of inner guidance.

You have waited for thousands of years to hear our messages, and it is only now that the vibration is high enough for us to come forward and speak to you. These messages you read come directly through our hearts, relayed from the heart of God. Your heart is God's receptacle—so open it wide, my dear readers, and receive our words directly into your heart where their vibrations will raise your consciousness enough to meld into us directly as your eyes perceive our words.

We await the great day when we will be able to show ourselves to you, when you will be able to peer directly into our eyes and fathom the God within our souls—including yours. Many are now still separated from the Lord God I AM of their being, but our purpose for these messages is to bring you the reality of your own God Selves and help you connect to the Light within your own soul.

Life is about connecting—not disconnecting into separate units, as your density and negativity and limitation on the surface caused you to do. Life is a flow of energy, connecting everyone, everywhere, simultaneously. We invite you to be in this flow, and flow with our thoughts and our heartbeat as you read our words carried to the surface on the winds of telepathy—winds that bring our thoughts and feelings into your heartspace—for you to also access as you learn to resonate with our vibration. As you think of Us, you will feel a heightened sense of being as our energy cascades into you. It is a physical sensation that is unmistakable.

"Messages from the Hollow Earth is a must-read if one is interested in knowing the truth about this strange and wonderful world in which we live, a world that plays such a central role in the history and destiny of the human race in this grand universe." - BRANTON (Bruce Walton), Researcher.

"Inside this book you will find amazing facts about the Inner Earth that are being kept hidden from the public." - Timothy Green Beckley, President, Global Communications.

TELOS

The Call Goes Out from the Hollow Earth and the Underground Cities

By Dianne Robbins

ISBN 0-9700-9020-X. Softcover. 169 pp. Rev. & Expanded Ed. 2001. Dianne Robbins, 341 Village Lane, Rochester, NY 14610, U.S. $15.00.

Explore the rich family life of the people from the lost continent of Lemuria, who have been living Underground for the past 12,000 years; and who, due to their isolation from the surface population, have created a civilization of peace and abundance, with no sickness, aging or death.

"Greetings from Telos! I AM ADAMA, Ascended Master and High Priest of Telos, a Subterranean City beneath Mt. Shasta in California. I am dictating this message to you from my home beneath the Earth, where over a million of us live in perpetual peace and prosperity. We are human and physical just as you, except for the fact that our mass consciousness holds thoughts of only Immortality and Perfect Health. Therefore, we can live hundreds and even thousands of years in the same body. We came here over 12,000 years ago before a thermal nuclear war took place that destroyed the Earth's surface. We faced such hardships and calamities above ground, that we decided to continue our evolution underground. We renovated the already existing cavern inside Mt. Shasta, and prepared it for the time when we would need to evacuate our homes above ground. When the war was to begin, we traveled to this underground cavern by going through the vast tunnel system that's spread throughout the planet.

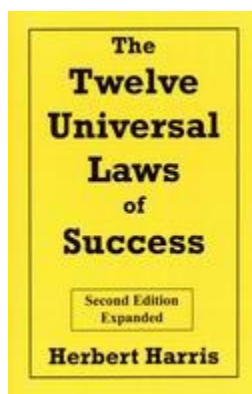

"For the past 12,000 years, we have been able to rapidly evolve in consciousness due to our isolation from the marauding bands of extraterrestrials and other hostile races that prey on the surface population. Because the surface population is now experiencing great leaps of consciousness, we have begun to contact surface dwellers to make our existence known. For in order for the Earth and Humanity to continue to ascend in consciousness, the whole planet must be united. It is for this reason that we are contacting you to make you aware of our underground existence, so you can bring the fact of our existence to the attention of our fellow brothers and sisters above ground. Our book of channeled messages is written to humanity, in hopes that they will recognize and receive us when we emerge from our homes beneath ground in the not too far distant future. We will be grateful to you for the part you play in helping us broadcast the reality of our existence. We thank you."

From Massage to Miracles: and Other Experiences from the Alpha State

By Richard Harman

ISBN 1-877162-14-0. Paperback. 256 pp. 1998. Orca Publishing (imprint of Hazard Press), New Zealand. U.S. $19.95.

The alpha state is a range of brain wave frequencies that, below the logical beta state frequencies, give access to our intuitive, creative and healing abilities. From Massage to Miracles reports over 40 experiences of alternative health treatments which reveal a pattern of rapid cures of patients with longstanding ailments. Practical rather than religious, the book explores mind-body effects, the role played by thought in the genesis of certain ailments, the body's energy field and chakras, homeopathy, telepathy, the channeling of consciousness, the basis of genius, psychic and paranormal experiences, the placebo effect, and skepticism. A common thread: the surrender of control and ego appears to underlie the workings of prayer, mystical illumination, miracles, rebirthing and spoon-bending.

"A potent and potentiating gathering of some of the most interesting and exciting psychological and spiritual developments of our time." - Jean Houston, author, Search for the Beloved and A Passion for the Possible.

"It's challenging stuff, by someone who hardly qualifies as some sort of alternative lifestyle hippie, and will confront much conventional thinking and change some ideas." - The Northern Advocate, New Zealand.

"From Massage to Miracles covers a great many events and occurrences not explained by Western science. Subjects range from accounts of asthma treatments to Uri Geller-type spoon-bending experiences, which, according to the author, 'even my kinder friends knew that I lacked the imagination to have invented.' Harman wrote this book of anecdotal accounts to reassure others who have similar experiences as well as to support and encourage people looking to improve our health system by adopting some alternative techniques." - University of Canterbury Chronicle.

About the Author: Richard Harman earned an honors degree in engineering from Canterbury University, Christchurch, New Zealand. He spent 11 years mainly on jet engine development with Rolls-Royce in England and Canada, and represented these firms with Boeing and NASA in the U.S. He then taught mechanical engineering design for 20 years at Canterbury and published the book Gas Turbine Engineering. # LET'S TALK FLYING SAUCERS

How Crackpot Ideas Are Blinding Us to Reality and Leading Us to Extinction

By Peter Bros

ISBN 1930091001. Paperback. 293 pp. 2003. FBP Publishing. $18.00.

Three hundred years ago, the elite few dictated our government.
Today, we are responsible for our government.

"Empirical science is a religious endeavor founded on the belief that God created the universe with basic underlying laws which the anointed, through the revelation of mathematics, can discern. We, as disciples, are not expected to question accepted revelations such as that gravity is a property of mass, the solar system's motion results from an historical swirling mass of gas, everything moves in a straight line unless a force acts to alter that motion, matter can neither be created nor destroyed (what does that even mean?), light is not made up of what gives it off, ad infinitum—each revelation designed to fix the boundaries of a certain quantity of reality so that it can be incorporated into the limited terms of mathematical equations. Ours is not to understand, ours is but to compute and follow." - from Let's Talk Flying Saucers

Today, we are responsible for our religion.

"I, of course, believe that we evolved minds that can be used to analyze physical reality in order to come up with a consistent picture of that physical reality. We don't have to come up with a consistent picture of physical reality, but if we want to produce a technology that reflects physical reality, then the only way we can produce that technology is if we use our minds to produce a consistent picture of ourselves, the world we occupy and indeed the universe of which we are a part." - from Let's Talk Flying Saucers

Three hundred years ago, the elite few dictated our education.
Today, we are responsible for our education.

"Producing a consistent picture of physical reality doesn't have anything to do with laws, revelations, secret procedures, languages or approvals. It involves simply using the mind that is a part of reality to form pictures of reality that are complete, that make sense and that can therefore be used by all of us to create and perfect technology. Mathematics helps us define what the hard edges of reality are, but it can't produce concepts, the understanding we need, nor can it convert our made-up concepts into reality by calling them laws." - from Let's Talk Flying Saucers

Three hundred years ago, the elite few dictated our science.
Today, the elite few, dead these 300 years, still dictate our science.

"We have abdicated our responsibility to ensure that we have as accurate a picture of reality as possible in order that our technology reflect reality and provide its benefit to all of humanity. We have a contract with science. We will give scientists our hard-earned resources so that they are relieved of the burden of earning a living so they can spend their time coming up with answers to the questions of reality which we don't have the time to examine. In return, we get crackpot ideas for which there is not a shred of evidence and ample evidence against. Here are just a few:"

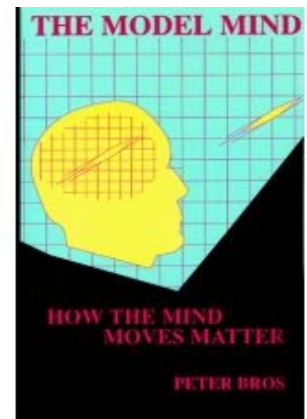

- The never-proven notion of Newton that gravity is a property of matter;
- The unsupported conclusion that white light is made up of all light colors;
- The unexamined assumption that the colors of light are lined up the way they come out of a prism rather than by brightness;
- The resulting assumption that reverses the spectrum, placing blue as the shortest frequency and red as the longest against all measurable observation;
- The absurd notion that light is not made up of what gives it off;
- The deadly belief that finding a fact predicted by an idea can turn that idea into a fact;
- The ignorance that sees planets move without a current force;
- The three-hundred-year-old belief in Newton's precessional wobble which fails to describe measurable precession;
- The delusion that nature created oversized dinosaurs too big to move; and many more.

[Bros] ...is extremely bright and uses logic not so much like a scalpel as like a hammer. One of the few thinkers writing today who really has something insightful and new to offer." - Reviewer, AMAZON.COM.

THE MODEL MIND

How the Mind Moves Matter

By Peter Bros

ISBN 0962776920. Paperback. 370 pp. September 1993. Financial Book Partners. $14.95.

How do we recall an image of a tree when there is no tree present?

Why do we recall a tree when we see a tree?

What makes it possible to create a tree that has never existed before?

These questions of memory, perception and creativity are just a part of The Model Mind, the first explanation of how the mind forms images, how it stores and recalls those images, and why those images, non-material in and of themselves, can drive the body, tormenting it with guilt, destroying it with anger, and elevating it to create cities in the sky.

About the Author: Peter Bros is author of the nine-volume Copernican Series, of which The Model Mind is Volume Four (Let's Talk Flying Saucers is a companion volume that "takes empirical science apart at the seams"). He is president of The Far Museum of Dallas, an actual history museum which will house 50,000 rare Eastern Mediterranean manuscripts and artifacts together with historical displays and tours through a full-sized replica of the Egyptian Temple at Dendera. In traditional yoga practice, a person places his or her body into specific postures while focusing on breath and body alignment. Designed for two or more people, Partner Yoga postures utilize the forms and principles of individual postures while incorporating the presence of another to deepen the impact of the pose. In Williamson's style of Partner Yoga, there is no giver or receiver in a posture; thus all partners are fully engaged in their own experience.

The Pleasures and Principles of Partner Yoga is a synthesis of ancient and modern yogic techniques that focus on both self and relationship development. The book presents simple to advanced partner and group practices that are ideal for those with or without prior Yoga experience. Over 60 practices are presented in eleven principle-based chapters.

The book is innovative in both content and design, using the latest Photoshop® techniques to transform over 300 photographs into the appearance of fine hand-drawn images. Each chapter begins with an inspirational essay accompanied by a dramatic full-page color image. Throughout the book, Williamson captivates and inspires us to move beyond self-imposed limits to a richer experience of the heart, mind and body.

A Selection: "Our world is changing at a pace with which we can barely keep up, yet the truth of the healing power of love has remained the same since the beginning of time. As technology advances, we are increasingly isolated and starved for meaningful human contact. Partner Yoga provides powerful tools for connecting with our humanity—tools that empower us to create and sustain peaceful relationships and communities."

THE CALL Awakening the Angelic Human

By Toni Sar'h Petrinovich

ISBN 1-4010-7877X. Hardcover. 157 pp. 2002. Sar'h Publishing House. $21.95. (Also as Paperback: ISBN 1-4010-7876-1.)

In The Call: Awakening the Angelic Human, Toni Sar'h Petrinovich writes about the modern-day search for wholeness, within and without, and clarifies many of our age-old questions. Do angels exist? Are there angelic humans? Is the search for the angelic a call from our souls to fulfill an interconnectedness that knows no physical bounds, but opens us to the discovery that this angelic "spirit" is already within us?—that there are angels in human form? She helps us understand the angelic realm, its purpose and focus and our possible agreement with it.

Toni Sar'h links the angelic realm, the principles that activate DNA in humanity, the connection between DNA and evolution, and describes for us the Angelic Human (AH). She shows us how AH have an attraction to the One Will, and how this intensified attraction manifests encoded differences within the Angelic Human's soul pattern. This magnetism further integrates the individuated free will into the One Will, bringing the Angelic Humans into a mode of surrender and vulnerability. Within that vulnerability lives the potential for the greatest power: the openness which is the gap between breaths which brings the Angelic Human to the depths of the Heart—the Pulse of the Sophia—the Mother Creator.

Toni Sar'h reveals why this is the time of unfolding consciousness, how we can manifest this consciousness most easily, and what purpose Angelic Humans serve in the overall design of humanity's evolution. Not only is this a book of self-discovery, it is a primer for the activating soul who remembers a calling to this time and space to provide a portal through their ever-awakening consciousness for light, truth, and divinity to flow. - From the Foreword by Flo Aeviea Magdalena

About the Author: Toni Elizabeth Sar'h Petrinovich received her Doctorate Degree in metaphysics from the University of Metaphysics in Los Angeles. She is a Master Teacher through the Holy Order of MANS under the Order of the Golden Cross. Born with the innate ability to see multidimensionally, she uses her gifts to bring people in tune with their own truth.

THE SOVEREIGN SOUL

Sufism: A Path for Today

By Phillip Gowins

ISBN 978-1-892138-10-1. Paperback. Preface. 224 pp. April 2006. New Paradigm Books. $16.95.

The aim of the 1,500-year-old spiritual tradition of Sufism, it has been said, is "the elimination of all veils between man and God." In June 2004, Sufi Master Pir Vilayat Inayat Khan died peacefully at his home in Paris, France. As leader of the Sufi Order International which first brought Sufism to the West in 1910, Pir Vilayat had spent more than 40 years teaching this and other truths of Sufism to audiences in the U.S., Europe and Asia.

For 25 years, Sufi teacher Phillip Gowins was able to take advantage of the many visits of Pir Vilayat to the New York area of the U.S. Thus The Sovereign Soul: Sufism: A Path for Today is a homage to the Master, providing as it does an introduction to the ancient stream of wisdom embodied by Sufism, but present in other religions and humanistic philosophies as well, that Pir Vilayat was able to impart to students around the world.

The Sovereign Soul is also a description, always concrete, often humorous, of the mystical path that Phillip Gowins himself has pursued over the years. With many examples and exercises, he shows us how we can practice the spiritual life ourselves. The path he lays out is strewn with pitfalls and pleasures alike. He tells us how we can avoid the one and enjoy the other, and attain to love and self-mastery in the increasingly complex 21st century.

From the Preface by Debra Bunch Ghosh (Abi-Ru Shirzan):

Sufis tend to emphasize that, as a form of communication, words are too limited to have great value. Even Rumi, the prolific poet, whose 30,000 verses top American bestseller lists 750 years after his death, scoffed at the ability of words to convey 'that Reality.' A Sufi book, then, is something of a paradox. It is a collection of words about something that cannot be conveyed in words. Phillip Gowins, in this insightful personal narrative, acknowledges as much, more than once.

Why read it, then? Rumi, asked a similar question, replied, 'Words set you searching. They are not the objects of your quest.... Words are like glimpsing movement far in the distance. You start in that direction to see better.' And so, in reading the words that follow, you set your feet on a trail.

Just the act of picking up this book and glancing at it suggests you are a seeker. You may have been intrigued by its title and wanted to know more. You may even have heard about Sufis and wondered who they are...

CONVERSATIONS WITH ETERNITY

The Forgotten Masterpiece of Victor Hugo

Translated with a Commentary by John Chambers, with an Introduction by Martin Ebon

ISBN 1892138018. Paperback. Illustrated. 262 pp. November 1998. New Paradigm Books. $13.95. [Priority of Sion Edition July 2006.]

If you're not one of the 25 million people worldwide who've read Dan Brown's novel The Da Vinci Code, you have four months to get caught up before the movie opens on May 19, 2006. Directed by Ron Howard and starring some of the world's best actors—Tom Hanks; France's Audrey Tautou (The Very Long Engagement); the U.K.'s Ian McKellen (Lord of the Rings)—the film version of The Da Vinci Code is bound to be a smash hit. It's also sure to further upset Catholics and fundamentalist Christians already enraged by the book's central premise (which Brown claims is fact) that Jesus was married to Mary Magdalene and fathered a daughter whose bloodline has survived into present-day Europe.

The movie will also provoke a new avalanche of interest in the alleged Paris-based Priory of Sion, which, according to the novel (Brown also says this is fact), is a secret society that for 1,000 years has protected the secret of Jesus's bloodline and his descendents themselves. The title of the book derives from the fact (again historically true, according to Brown) that Leonardo da Vinci was one of 26 "grandmasters" of the Priory of Sion.

The Da Vinci Code alludes briefly to the supposed grandmastership of the Priory of Sion of Les Misérables author Victor Hugo. Ron Howard's movie version will make readers and movie-goers everywhere eager to know more about this alleged connection, rumors of which derive from Hugo's involvement with "table-tapping" seances in 1853-1855 while in exile on the Channel island of Jersey: Transcripts exist of the poet's conversations with 115 "discarnate spirits" including the illustrious dead (Shakespeare, Galileo, etc.), legendary animals (e.g. Balaam's Ass, the Lion of Androcles), entities who said they'd never been alive ("The Shadow of the Sepulcher," "Death," and others), a string of abstract concepts (such as 'India,' 'Metempsychosis,' 'Ocean') and even extraterrestrials from the planet Mercury who channeled drawings of themselves.

Conversations with Eternity: The Forgotten Masterpiece of Victor Hugo is a translation (the first in English), with lengthy commentary, of the transcripts of the more riveting of these seances. A completely revised edition, due out July 2006, provides new transcripts (including the text of a new, "channeled" play by Shakespeare) while abbreviating and reexamining the old. It demonstrates that the cosmology of the spirits derived in part from the cabbalic Zohar, which Hugo studied intently in his 40s. It shows that Hugo was a student of Hinduism and that, through the poet Lamartine, he was greatly influenced by the seeming pantheism of Goethe. It raises the question, why is the presence of Giordano Bruno so palpable at the seances? It asks whether the Priory of Sion—or some other, vaster, secret society—indeed lurked behind the Jersey island communings with the dead.

"Quite a surprise, quite a delight." - The Anomalist (Best Books of 1998).

"This is a total adventure, and I would have given my eye-teeth to be there." - NAPRA Review.

"Strangely alive, pregnant with a timely spiritual urgency." - Fate.

"Challenging, memorable, poetic utterances abound." - Foreword.

As For Tomorrow, I Cannot Say

33 Years with Multiple Sclerosis

By Diana Neutze

A joint publication of New Paradigm Books and Hazard Press, New Zealand <<http://www.hazard.co.nz>>. ISBN 1877270172 (N.Z.). ISBN 1892138069 (U.S.). Paper. 104 pp. February 2002 (U.S.). $13.95.

New Zealand poet Diana Neutze was in her late 20's, living in London with her husband and young son, when she discovered that she had multiple sclerosis. More than three decades later, wheelchair-bound and largely confined to her Christchurch home, she has told her remarkable story. Fiercely independent and passionately determined, she has fought the illness with every psychological and physical weapon in her armory. As For Tomorrow, I Cannot Say is a tribute to the power of the human spirit.

"I am recommending it to young doctors because it contains insights into managing multiple sclerosis that they will not find in their textbooks." - Jon Simcock, M.D., Neurological Foundation of New Zealand, Auckland

"It's difficult to write of your own misfortunes without self-pity. It's also difficult to live with long illness without becoming self-centered. Diana Neutze's autobiography of multiple sclerosis, though, shows that both are possible. Neutze is a New Zealand poet and historian, who contracted MS in her 20s but who managed to teach at university, publish several books and travel overseas, in spite of continually having to adjust to physical degeneration. Given the unforgiving nature of her disease, Neutze's achievements show admirable strength of character, but read her book and you'll quickly realize that, even better, her outlook is suffused with humour (often directed at her predicament) and an abiding interest in other people. This humility lifts Neutze's book from being a mere chronicle of an illness into a manifesto of spunk. As a chronicle, it is successful enough. Indeed, it illuminates the inner and outer lives of the multiple sclerosis victim with sensitivity and perception. Reading it, I felt privileged to be admitted to her private world, and grateful for her insights into life with a severe disability. It is attractively written, witty, interesting, and sprinkled with poetry—which makes a successful book by anyone's standards. But the best thing about this little book is that "victim" isn't part of Neutze's vocabulary. By the time you've finished it, you won't be surprised to learn that the manuscript was typed with only one finger in a single month!" - Wanganui Newspapers, N.Z, April 23, 2002.

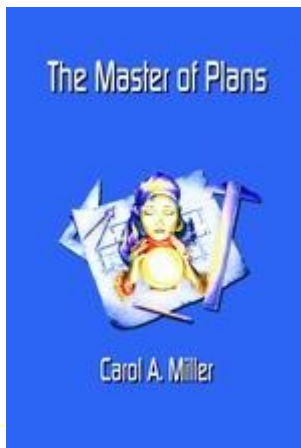

"This book is a revelation and an inspiration....[It] deserves to remain in print forever, as a classic resource." - Quality Web Content.

"A story of courage, determination and extraordinary creativity." - Helen J. O'Neill, TAKAHE Literary Magazine.

This is the story of a young girl who struggles to find her own identity and to comprehend the outcome of events that take place in her life. Her ethnic background, strong sense of family, and her dedication to God and her religion heavily influence what happens to Carrie Moretti along the way.

Naive and trusting, incredibly talented and artistic, it seems no challenge is too taxing for the resilient and resourceful Carrie. She seizes every opportunity to broaden her horizons to artfully master each new endeavor in her tireless search for contentment and true love.

Subjected to abuse and stifled by her strict and domineering mother, she seeks out husbands who act the same. That is until she finds her hero. Following paths she never would have chosen for herself, she is unconsciously influenced by a psychic reading that haunts her for over thirty years.

Was the psychic's forecast part of a master plan?

"Congratulations, Carol Miller, on writing The Master of Plans. Your vast borderline epic story captures the pulse and texture of a full lifetime. Carrie and John come through as fully tangible individuals. The other characters are vivid, too, but your two leads have a haunting resonance. I felt as though I knew them very well. It helps that I grew up in Central New Jersey. The book's opening passages sent me on an unexpected nostalgic trip." - Eric Shapiro, Editor/Proofreader.

"This book is one you won't want to put down until you are finished reading. The author engages the readers by drawing them into the story, making it easy to relate to the main character's trials and tribulations." A Reviewer, Barnes & Noble.

One in which will definitely have a happy ending. Naturally, everyone loves a joyful finale.

You truly believe each and every saga in quite vivid detail. After all, fairytales always have a blissful and satisfying conclusion. No one would ever dare to ruin this myth for you. I truly want for this to forever be the case. No, I truly believe this to be the case! However, just as I have not been able to remove the glorious delight from my memory (nor would I ever want to), I have not been able to diminish the nefarious demonic (and would truly love to).

My first novel is, what I consider to be, a love story. The sequel is, what I consider to be, a story of love. For I believe that I am truly an inherent lover. Every task performed, each favor extended, facilitated with spontaneous ease simply to illustrate love, unselfishly and generously. Still determined to expunge a psychic prophecy, will my fairytale have a happy ending? It is indubitably time for Carrie Moretti Malone to create her own blueprint and become the master of plans.
